Public Comments

Guests-
Steven Heck

New Business:

City Park Nuisance – Vagrancy laws have changed. Seth to put together an ordinance over camping and curfew to protect city and enforce movement.

Camp Host – Sandra and Russell Barker will be camp hosts in spot #2. They plan on moving in the first weekend of April through summer time. Council has waived camping fees, as long as they are available to help and maintain the lake/campgrounds.

Spring Clean-Up – Todd made motion for Noah's Ark Vet to come April 13, 2024 and to have clean-up week April 22-26, 2024 with same rules as 2023. Cody 2nd, motion carried.

Fireworks – Rayce made motion to match the City Booster Club for $2,000.00 towards the fireworks show. Todd 2nd, motion carried.

3380 85th Rd – Mrs. Turner and her family came in to discuss a water issue on their property. The waterline down Watermelon Rd, past Dorn Rd, is not large enough to sustain another additional home to it. Rayce explained the possibility of an easement to go across and connect to Dorn Rd line instead.

Old Business:

Dogs – Seth explained what we are legally allowed to do.

Updates:

Grants – Dusti let Rose Mary know we have decided to go with BG Consultants.

Community Building Ramp – Reaching out for more quotes.

Ordinances – Seth to provide updated list for next council meeting.

Garage Door – Todd made motion for Independence Overhead Door to repair the City Shop garage door. Cody 2nd, motion carried.

Osage Street Culvert – Waiting on the telephone company.

Cold Patch – $85 cash per ton by Carthage, $90 per ton charged. We would need someone to haul.

426 Labette St – Steven still wants the lots regardless of Sheriff's Deed. He will talk to his bank.

Bridge on Labette Street – Tim Morris will repair soon.

Final Thoughts-

Erin Thornton would like to use the conference room on a Tuesday evening to hold a bible study class. Anna will monitor.

Robert will paint the parking stops at City Hall.

Cindy Stiles to propose we raise the tax for the sewer restorations we are working on getting done.

Robert to get estimates for a new 3'-2" pump.

Todd made and Cody 2nd the motion to adjourn meeting. Meeting adjourned at 8:00 p.m.
